If these clients have already purchased an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the brand new book, but do not embrace a value on that page. As an alternative, add numerous hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to check out prices by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Ensure your gross sales copy is exactly the same on each web page, and contains your selling-deal with sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This will inform you what your optimum value is.

In the end, for those who've written a e-book that solves a downside or presents a new approach, your book will bring in both traffic and profits.
