Besides promoting your books assiduously online, there are several other methods that can make it easier to promote more books.

An effective method for figuring out a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an ebook from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a gross sales page for the new ebook, but don't embody a price on that page. Instead, add a number of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Make sure your gross sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. This will inform you what your optimum value is.

In the end, in the event you've written a e-book that solves a drawback or presents a brand new approach, your guide will herald each visitors and profits. So you should definitely write that promoting-handle sentence that sums up what downside your ebook solves and what the benefits of your 2051 guide will be to the purchasers who buy it.
